v.

LONE STAR SILICON INNOVATIONS, LLC,
Appellee

2019-2030

Appeal from the United States Patent and Trademark
Office, Patent Trial and Appeal Board in No. IPR2018-00062.

Before LOURIE, SCHALL, and CHEN, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

O R D E R

Nanya Technology Corporation, Nanya Technology Corporation Delaware, and Nanya Technology Corporation U.S.A. (collectively, “Nanya”) petitioned for inter partes review of claims 1, 2, 5-7, and 10 of U.S. Patent 6,388,330 (the “330 patent”) owned by Lone Star Silicon Innovations, LLC. After that review, the Patent Trial and Appeal Board

2 NANYA TECHNOLOGY CORPORATION v. LONE STAR SILICON
INNOVATIONS

(“the Board”) held that claims 1, 5-6, and 10 are unpatentable but that Nanya failed to meet its burden to show that claims 2 and 7 are unpatentable. Nanya Tech. Corp. v. Lone Star Silicon Innovations, LLC, No. IPR2018-00062 (PTAB March 25, 2019). Nanya appeals the Board’s decision with respect to claims 2 and 7.

In a separate appeal, we recently affirmed a decision of the Board holding claims 2 and 7 of the same ’330 patent unpatentable. Lone Star Silicon Innovations, LLC v. Iancu, No. 19-1669 (Fed. Cir. Mar. 25, 2020).

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

Accordingly, this appeal is dismissed as moot in light of our affirmance in Lone Star Silicon Innovations, LLC v. Iancu, No. 19-1669 (Fed. Cir. Mar. 25, 2020), which invalidated all of the claims at issue in this appeal.

Each party shall bear its own costs.
