Federal Circuit Schedules February Session for Central North Carolina

The U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit is pleased to announce that it is sitting in and around Central North Carolina as part of its February 2025 session. The Federal Circuit will concurrently hold its regular session in Washington, D.C.

Panels of the court will hear arguments at the following Central North Carolina law schools:

- | | |
|-----------------------------|--|
| Tuesday, February 4, 2025 | • University of North Carolina
School of Law |
| Wednesday, February 5, 2025 | • Duke University School of Law |
| Thursday, February 6, 2025 | • North Carolina Central University
School of Law |

The cases scheduled for the February 2025 session will be posted on the court's website once finalized.

The Federal Circuit regularly hears arguments outside of Washington, D.C. as part of its nationwide jurisdiction and statutory requirement to provide "reasonable opportunities to citizens to appear before the court." The Federal Circuit has held sessions in New York, California, Massachusetts, Maryland, Minnesota, Texas, Delaware, Pennsylvania, and Georgia.
