IN RE COMPLAINT NO. FC-20-90028

---

Before PROST, Chief Judge.

ORDER AND SUPPORTING MEMORANDUM

The complainant has filed a judicial misconduct complaint concerning a judge of the United States District Court for the District of Connecticut. To the extent the complainant also asserts wrongdoing by other individuals who are not covered by the Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings, including a state court judge trial referee, the court does not accept the complaint against those individuals. See Rule 8(d) (providing that the court may only accept a complaint against a person covered by the rules).

Pursuant to Rule 7(a)(1), a complaint against a district court judge “must be filed with the circuit clerk in the jurisdiction in which the subject judge holds office.” However, if the complaint alleges misconduct in the course of official business while the subject judge was sitting on a court by designation, then the complaint may be filed either with the circuit clerk in the jurisdiction in which the subject judge sat by designation or with the circuit clerk in the jurisdiction in which the subject judge holds office. See Rule 7(b).

The complainant does not assert that the subject judge sat by designation with the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. Instead, the complaint
